

Growth — My Treasure Within

Verse 1

I used to look for the prize at the end of the line,
But I'm learning the treasure is built over time.
Every stretch, every step, every hard-earned mile,
Is shaping the strength I didn't see for a while.
There's more in me than I've ever known,
But I won't find it staying comfortable.

Pre-Chorus

I feel the pull when it gets uncomfortable,
That's how I know I'm moving forward.

Chorus

Growth happens when comfort ends,
And commitment begins again.
It's the choices I make when it's hard to stay,
That turn effort into change.
Every challenge is proof I'm close,
Every stretch means I'm doing the most.
Growth is the treasure I carry with me,
Becoming more than I used to be.

Verse 2

I've got infinite potential inside my soul,
But it only shows up when I take control.
I celebrate the progress, not just the win,
Every small decision that aligns within.
If it feels unfamiliar, I lean into it,
'Cause going where I've never been means growth exists.

Pre-Chorus 2

Discomfort isn't something to fear,
It's a sign that change is near.

Chorus

Growth happens when comfort ends,
And commitment begins again.
It's the choices I make when it's hard to stay,
That turn effort into change.
Every challenge is proof I'm close,
Every stretch means I'm doing the most.
Growth is the treasure I carry with me,
Becoming more than I used to be.

Bridge

I own my path, I choose my pace,
I'm investing in who I'm becoming with faith.
This is my journey, this is my growth to find,
I won't leave my potential behind.
I trust the process, I trust the climb,
I'm transforming step by step in time.

Chorus

Growth happens when comfort ends,
And commitment begins again.
It's the choices I make when it's hard to stay,
That turn effort into change.
Every challenge is proof I'm close,
Every stretch means I'm doing the most.
Growth is the treasure I carry with me,
Becoming more than I used to be.

Outro

So I ask myself when it's hard to stay,
How am I growing through discomfort today?
I move ahead, trusting the proof—
This life is changing me
Through growth.
